

Western Skies Show

Multimedia Show (2008)
The Plaza Theater,
El Paso, Texas

Western Skies is an affectionate anthem to the city of El Paso. In less than 5 minutes this multimedia pre-show gives an appetizing taste of El Paso life and culture to newcomers while highlighting the historic Plaza Theater. Visitors approach the theater's feature presentation with a rich appreciation of exactly where they are.

Science North used existing lighting and sound equipment in innovative ways to celebrate the unique architecture of the theater. A multitude of innovative lighting effects move the audience through a full day of beautiful El Paso scenes, from sunrise to sunset.
